

SENATE BILL 1633

By Beavers

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 2,
Chapter 1, relative to election campaign practices.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 2, Chapter 1, is amended by adding the following language as a new, appropriately designated section:

2-1-118.

(a) When an individual files a nominating petition with the appropriate office indicating the individual's candidacy for state public office, as defined in § 2-10-102, the election coordinator or county registrar-at-large shall give the candidate a copy of the code of fair campaign practices for the candidate's review. Signing the code and adhering to its guidelines are voluntary, and the election coordinator or county registrar-at-large shall so inform each candidate. If a candidate signs the code, the candidate shall file a copy of the signed form within five (5) days of signing, with the election coordinator or county registrar-at-large. The election coordinator or county registrar-at-large shall maintain such copy on file until thirty (30) days after the election.

(b) If a candidate signs the code, such candidate may use with the candidate's campaign literature a statement of such candidate's compliance with the code.

(c) The secretary of state shall print and distribute and post on the secretary of state's web site the code of fair campaign practices, which shall read as follows:

CODE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICES

There are basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play which every candidate for public office in the State of Tennessee has a moral obligation to observe and uphold in order for the people of this state to exercise their constitutional right to vote in a free and informed way. In order to meet that objective, I _____, being a candidate for the office of _____, agree to the following campaign guidelines:

(1) I will conduct my campaign openly and publicly, discussing the issues as I see them, presenting my record and my policies with sincerity and frankness, and limit my attacks on my opponents to only legitimate challenges to my opponent's record and policies.

(2) I will not use or permit the use of character defamation, whispering campaigns, libel, slander, or scurrilous attacks on any candidate or a candidate's personal or family life.

(3) I will not use or permit any appeals to negative prejudice based upon race, sex, religion, national origin, physical health status, or age.

(4) I will not use campaign material of any sort which misrepresents, distorts, or otherwise falsifies the facts, nor will I use malicious or unfounded accusations which aim at creating or exploiting doubts, without justification, as to the personal integrity or patriotism of my opposition.

(5) I will avoid demeaning references to my opponent and demeaning visual images of my opponent.

(6) I will not use or permit any dishonest or unethical practices which tend to corrupt or undermine our American system of free elections, or which hampers or prevents the full and free expression of the will of the voters.

(7) I will defend and uphold the right of every qualified American voter to fully and equally participate in the electoral process.

(8) I will not coerce election help or campaign contributions for myself or for any other candidate from my employees.

(9) I will immediately and publicly repudiate support deriving from any individual or group which resorts, on behalf of my candidacy or in opposition to that of my opponent, to the methods and tactics which I condemn. I shall accept responsibility to take firm action against any subordinate who violates any provisions of this code or the laws governing elections.

I, the undersigned candidate for election to public office in the State of Tennessee hereby voluntarily endorse, subscribe to, and solemnly pledge myself to conduct my campaign in accordance with these principles and practices.
